

This form must be filled out by the student's mother, father, sponsor or spouse who wishes to consent to the release of personal information or to cancel such consent.

By consenting to release personal information, the person authorizes the employees of Aide financière aux études (AFE) and those of the educational institution attended by the student to release to the student any information provided by the person and held for the purposes of the student financial assistance programs offered by the Ministère de l'Éducation, du Loisir et du Sport. This consent does not extend to the information AFE verifies with Revenu Québec.

Each parent must fill out a separate form for each child.
