A. Marital status (cont.)

If you are married, living in a civil union or living in a de facto union with another person and are living with a child (see Guide, page 9), please provide the following information concerning your spouse.

Last name

First name

Date of birth

Spouse's permanent code assigned by the Ministère (if applicable)

B. Major functional disability

The information provided in this subsection will enable us to determine if you are entitled to the special measures for students with a major functional disability. (See Guide, page 9.)

You must check this box if you have a major functional disability recognized by a doctor. 14

C. Self-supporting student (based on family situation)

You must check all of the statements that apply to you. If none of the statements apply to your situation, go directly to subsection D.

1. I am or was the biological or adoptive parent of a child. 15 Date of birth or adoption:
2. I am single and both my parents are deceased. 16
 Capacity of parent: Father Mother Date of death:

E. Self-supporting student (based on time spent in the labour market)

If you are married, in a civil union, divorced, de facto separated or widowed, or if you are single and have checked one of the situations in subsections C and D, go directly to subsection F.

1. I was in one of the following situations for a total of at least 24 months, without ever studying full-time during that period. 25

- I held a paid job or received employment insurance or Canada Emergency Response Benefit (CERB) or Canada Recovery Benefit (CRB), Canada Recovery Caregiving Benefit (CRCB), Canada Recovery Sickness Benefit (CRSB) or Canada Worker Lockdown Benefit (CWLB) or income replacement benefits while living with my parents, sponsor or elsewhere.
- I supported myself while living somewhere other than with my parents or sponsor.
- I was in both of the above situations (periods must have been consecutive in this case).

2. I have not studied full-time for at least seven years (consecutive or not). 26

F. Exceptional family situation

If none of the statements in subsections C, D and E apply to you, check all of the following statements that apply to you. If none of these situations apply to you, go directly to subsection G. If you are a Canadian citizen by birth, go to question 2 below.

1. I am a naturalized Canadian citizen, a permanent resident, a refugee or a protected person, within the meaning of the Immigration and Refugee Protection Act, and one of the following situations applies to me:

- Your parents always lived outside Canada prior to January 1, 2022. 27
- Your spouse always lived outside Canada prior to January 1, 2022. 27

2. I am single and one of the following situations applies to me:

- 2.1 I have been placed in a foster home. 28
- 2.2 My parents or my sponsor is living in a special care home. (See Guide, page 11.) 28
- 2.3 I have been placed in the custody of a guardian. 28
- 2.4 My parents or my sponsor cannot be located. 28
- 2.5 I am or will be living in a halfway house in 2022-2023. (See Guide, page 11.) 28
- 2.6 My family situation has deteriorated and confirmation of this situation has been provided by an authorized person. (See Guide, page 11.) 28
- 2.7 I receive child support payments from my parents in accordance with a court judgment. 29
3. My spouse cannot be located. 28

G. Student with a parental contribution

If you are single and none of the statements in subsections C, D, E and F apply to you, you will be considered a student with a parental contribution. Similarly, in subsection F.2, if you checked box 2.2, 2.5 or 2.6, you will be considered a student with a parental contribution.

You must therefore have the forms for parents filled out: 2022-2023 Declaration of Father or sponsor form; 2022-2023 Declaration of Mother or sponsor form. Check the box that applies to your situation and have the appropriate form(s) filled out.

1. If your parents are living together, check this box.

(Have both your parents fill out the appropriate forms: 2022-2023 Declaration of Father or sponsor form; 2022-2023 Declaration of Mother or sponsor form.)

2. If your parents are divorced, legally separated or de facto separated, or if one of them is deceased, indicate with whom you now reside or last resided.

Your mother: _____
Last name First name

(Have her fill out the 2022-2023 Declaration of Mother or sponsor form.)

Your father: _____
Last name First name

(Have him fill out the 2022-2023 Declaration of Father or sponsor form.)

If you are a naturalized Canadian citizen, a permanent resident, a refugee or a protected person, see Guide, page 11.

B. Other income (January 1 to December 31, 2022)

Amounts you have received or will receive as an orphan's pension, pension for a disabled person's child (Retraite Québec/ CPP), surviving spouse's pension (Retraite Québec/ CPP), death benefits in the form of pensions (through the application of a law) and pensions paid to the child of a crime victim (CNESST) $00 If you have no income to report, enter "0" (zero).

Investment income (interest, dividends, capital gains) and income from a succession (do not report the principal), trust or gift..... $00

Allowances from the Minister of Public Security and allowances from the Minister of Indigenous Services Canada or a band council, or amounts received that reimburse tuition fees (e.g. bursaries/scholarships exempting the holder from tuition fees).. $00

Bursaries. Do not include those awarded by Aide financière aux études and financial contribution received under the Explore Program and under the Intern Perseverance and Success Scholarship for Various Programs (See Guide, page 13) $00

Intern Perseverance and Success Scholarship for Various Programs (See guide, page 13) $00

Amount you withdrew from a Registered Education Savings Plan (RESP) and the financial contribution you received under the Explore program..... $00
Since these amounts are not taken into account in your financial assistance assessment, you are not required to report them. However, since the income declared to Aide financière aux études is systematically checked with Revenu Québec at the end of the year, reporting these amounts could prevent you from having to justify a difference of income.
 (See Guide, page 13)

C. Employment held prior to start of full-time studies

You must fill out subsection C if you are single and have no dependent children.

The information provided in this subsection will enable us to determine if you are entitled to a financial contribution reduction with regard to the job(s) you held during the 4-month period preceding the start of your full-time studies in 2022-2023.

During that 4-month period, were you, are you or will you be employed or self-employed while living somewhere other than at your parents' or sponsor's residence? Yes No

If you answered YES to the previous question, indicate the name of your employer (or of one of your employers) and the address of your workplace.
